1ST DISTRICT COMMUNITY PROSECUTION UPDATE

Public Housing Enforcement. The U.S. Attorney's Office entered into a partnership with the D.C. Housing Authority (DCHA) last December to ensure that DCHA received timely notification of arrests of all individuals who reside in public housing. DCHA will then determine whether to exercise its discretion under "Operation Fightback" to evict such individuals from the property. Kathy Worthington, the Community Prosecutor for the First District, has worked closely with DCHA and its outside counsel who handles the eviction proceedings in Landlord Tenant Court, to implement and ensure the success of the partnership. Since this partnership began, the number of Operation Fightback cases processed by DCHA has increased 42%. It is hoped that by working closely with DCHA, the public housing facilities and surrounding neighborhoods will be made safer.

The COURT REPORT

Andre L. Whitney, pleads guilty to Voluntary Manslaughter while Armed for killing another man with a baseball bat over a $20 debt. Sentencing is set before the Honorable Ann O'Regan Keary for February 6, 2004. (PSA 102; Case Number F-4447-03)

FACTS: On July 27, 2003, shortly after 11:00 a.m., on 1st Street, N.W., between K and L Streets, defendant Andre L. Whitney and decedent Gregory L. Watkins encountered each other. The two men briefly discussed the $20 owed by Watkins to Whitney. Whitney was offended by Watkins's response and hit him with his fist in the face. Whitney then retrieved a nearby baseball bat and hit Watkins at least twice with it in the side of Watkins' body. Whitney then walked off, taking the bat with him. Watkins walked into his nearby residence. Inside the residence, Watkins collapsed and became unresponsive. An ambulance was called, responded and took Watkins to the Washington Hospital Center. Watkins was pronounced dead at the hospital at 12:20 p.m. that same day. An autopsy was performed the following day by the Medical Examiner's Office. The doctor who performed the autopsy ruled the death a homicide and the cause of death as blunt impact of the torso with lacerations of the spleen and hemoperitoneum, or internal bleeding. The doctor found that the internal bleeding, which was extensive, was due to several lacerations of the spleen. The injury to the spleen, in turn, was due to blunt impact of the torso, with the decedent having a reddish purple contusion in the shape of a loop on the left lateral surface of his chest.

Two witnesses, one a relative of the victim, and one a citizen, witnessed the incident, and told police what they had seen. On the afternoon of July 27, 2003, Metropolitan Police Department (MPD) personnel took Whitney to the MPD Violent Crime Branch (VCB) Office. There, Whitney gave a videotaped statement in which he admitted that earlier that day he had had a confrontation with Watkins, that Watkins owed him $20.00, that Whitney asked for it, but Watkins said he did not have it, that Whitney then said he had had enough of Watkins and "bust him in the face," and thereafter that Whitney went and retrieved a bat which he used to hit Watkins twice in the side. After giving this statement, Whitney was placed under arrest.

On November 21, 2003, defendant Whitney pled guilty to Voluntary Manslaughter While Armed. His sentencing is set before Judge Ann O'Regan Keary on February 6, 2004.

VCB Detectives Douglas Carlson and Stanley C. Farmer did an excellent job in investigating this crime and assisting Assistant United States Attorney Daniel Butler in the prosecution of the case.

Melvin Givens convicted by Superior Court jury of Aggravated Assault while Armed and Armed Robbery, for robbing and shooting lifelong acquaintance on street at 3:30 a.m., near Potomac Gardens apartment complex. (PSA 112; F-497-03, F-4023-03).

FACTS: Melvin Givens, 26, of the 800 block of Barnaby Street, SE, Washington, D.C. was convicted on November 26, 2003, by a jury in D.C. Superior Court, the Honorable Judith Retchin presiding, of Armed Robbery, Aggravated Assault while Armed and related weapons charges, stemming from a shooting in the early morning hours of January 24, 2003. Defendant Givens will be sentenced on February 6, 2004, when he faces over thirty years imprisonment.

According to the government's evidence, Mr. Givens, who had known the victim his entire life, shot and robbed the victim at 3:30 in the morning as the victim was walking home from a night with friends in the Potomac Gardens apartment complex in the 1100 block of K. Street, SE. Givens first shot the victim through the abdomen at point blank range, then chased him down and stood over him, shooting him three more times in the legs as he robbed and threatened his victim. An eyewitness testified that she saw Mr. Givens as he stood over the victim, and pointed the gun at his victim's head. The victim was rushed to Medstar, and survived to testify against Mr. Givens at trial.

In announcing the verdict, United States Attorney Howard Roscoe praised the efforts of First District Detective William Riddle and Detective Sergeant James Manning, Sergeants Gary Clearwater and Charles Baumgart, and Officers John Haines, Darnell Benton, Anthony Bowman, Shane Lamond, Charles Graham and Crime Scene Search Officer Salome Wilson. He also commended the work of United States Attorney's Office Paralegal Julie Ennis, and Legal Assistant Taniqueka Brooks. Finally, he thanked Assistant United States Attorneys Terrance Gainer who investigated the case, and David P. Saybolt who prosecuted the case at trial.

Norman Pleasant sentenced by the Honorable Rafael Diaz to eight years incarceration for Assault with a Dangerous Weapon (Knife) and Simple Assault, for stabbing an older man in dispute over auto repairs. (F-7124-02, PSA 103)

FACTS: The Honorable Rafael Diaz sentenced Norman Pleasant to eight years incarceration, for Assault with a Dangerous Weapon and Simple Assault, in connection with a stabbing which occurred at an auto repair lot in the 1000 block of 3rd Street, N.E. on March 23, 2002. Pleasant had been convicted by a Superior Court jury of Assault with a Dangerous Weapon and Simple Assault.

According to the evidence presented at trial, the incident arose in connection with work done at an auto repair garage in the 1000 block of 3rd Street, N.E., owned and operated by the 58 year old victim in the case. The defendant, a 39 year old man, complained about the work, and the two men argued. When the victim attempted to forcibly remove the defendant from the lot, the defendant punched the victim several times in the face. Defendant Pleasant then went to his car, retrieved something, put it under his shirt, returned to the lot, and stabbed the victim in the back.

Although the victim told police what happened at the time of the incident, he refused to come to court or witness conferences at the time of trial until a message was left for him at the garage that the court had issued a bench warrant for him. At that time, he finally came in, met with the prosecutor, and ultimately testified, clearly and credibly, concerning what had happened. Moreover, the jury credited his account, rejecting testimony of a defense witness that the victim was the aggressor. Assistant U.S. Attorney Alexander Shawe obtained the outstanding guilty verdict and sentence in this case.

Raymond A. Weston pleads guilty to Armed Robbery before Judge Russell Canan for June 22, 2003, armed robbery of CVS Pharmacy at 1025 Connecticut Avenue, NW. (F-3671-03, PSA 101)

FACTS: Raymond A. “Cocky Ray” Weston pled guilty on October 21, 2003, in D.C. Superior Court, the Honorable Russell Canan presiding, to the charge of Armed Robbery after he was apprehended shortly after the June 22, 2003, robbery of the CVS Pharmacy at 1025 Connecticut Avenue, NW (PSA 101). Weston was found in possession of money and cigarettes stolen from the CVS. Weston tossed a black backpack over a bridge as police pursued him from the CVS. After the backpack was recovered, police found the black starter pistol defendant had used to rob the CVS as well as three additional cartons of cigarettes.

When interrogated following his arrest, Weston also admitted robbing two other nearby CVS stores, one at 1901 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, and the other at 2000 L Street, NW, both located in the Second District. This case was handled by detectives Dennis Myles (1D) and David Edelstein (2D), together with Assistant U.S. Attorney David Saybolt, who obtained the plea. Defendant Weston faces up to thirty years in prison, when sentenced by Judge Canan on January 23, 2004.

Anthony Jackson sentenced by the Honorable Susan R. Winfield to five years incarceration for Aggravated Assault and 180 days for Attempted Escape. (F-1988-03, PSA 106)

FACTS: On November 24, 2003, Anthony Jackson was sentenced by the Honorable Susan Winfield to five years incarceration for Aggravated Assault, with a consecutive 180 days for Attempted Escape. Jackson had pled guilty to Aggravated Assault and Attempted Escape, on October 6, 2003.

On April 2, 2003, at approximately 9:45 pm, the victim had just ended her shift as an employee of a cleaning company that cleaned the REA building located at 900 2nd Street, NE. (in which Amtrak has office space). The victim was in the basement of the building, locking up her cleaning supplies, when the defendant, Anthony Jackson, walked up behind her and backed her into a corner. The defendant said “you are coming home with me tonight”. The victim was very afraid because there were no other people in the basement and she did not know what the defendant was going to do. The defendant then grabbed her by the hair and pulled her onto the elevator.

When the doors closed on the elevator the defendant began punching the victim about the head and face. Defendant grabbed hold of her hair and banged her head against the wall of the elevator. Clumps of the victim’s hair fell out, from the defendant pulling her hair. Blood started pouring from her nose and face. When the elevator doors opened the victim tried to escape but the defendant still had hold of her arm. The elevator door opened and closed on her arm. The victim finally broke free and ran, screaming, down the hallway to the office where two Amtrak employees were working. The employees were able to step between the victim and the defendant.

Other Amtrak employees were also able to observe the struggle between the victim and the defendant, through a long glass window facing out to Amtrak's train yard, and they ran over to assist. Eventually, Amtrak and MPD officers arrived on the scene. Amtrak Police Officer Millsaps was able to handcuff the defendant with the assistance of the civilian Amtrak employees.

The victim was taken to Howard University hospital. Her injuries included a fractured nose, patches of missing hair, bruises on her face and arm, a ringing sensation in her left ear, and continuing headaches.

With regard to the attempted escape charge, the defendant was taken to George Washington Hospital, under arrest and in police custody, with a 24 hour watch on his room, and the defendant handcuffed to his bed. The day after the assault, however, on April 4, 2003, the defendant convinced the officer guarding him that he could not use the bed pan, so the officer unlocked the defendant's handcuffs to allow him to use the bathroom inside his hospital room. When the defendant came out of the bathroom, he bolted out of the room and down the hallway. Fortunately, the defendant was apprehended by police and hospital security before he could leave the floor.

Raymond Parker pleads guilty to Conspiracy To Commit Armed Robbery, Robbery and Attempted Kidnapping. Sentencing is scheduled for February 6, 2004.
(F-2124-03, PSA 105)

FACTS: On April 11, 2003, at approximately 1:00 am, a computer technician who works in Washington, D.C. and who resides in Upper Marlboro, MD., was abducted at gunpoint at a gas station in Largo, MD. and driven into the District of Columbia by three assailants who commandeered his car. One of the gunmen was later identified as Raymond Parker. The victim was driven around to various locations in DC and ordered to withdraw money from various ATM machines, make clothing and food purchases, rent a hotel room, and rent a vehicle for use by his abductors. In addition, these three men took the victim's wedding ring and wallet. The victim was forcibly detained for over twelve hours. The victim escaped after he was ordered by his abductors to withdraw money from an ATM machine at 600 E Street, NW. Two of the three participants in this crime were immediately arrested by MPD Officers outside of a federal government building located at 600 E Street, NW. Sentencing is set before the Honorable Susan H. Winfield on February 6, 2004. The investigation and plea in this case were handled by Assistant U.S. Attorney Roger Kemp.

Robert Bellamy, commercial safe-cracker and burglar, sentenced by the Honorable Russell F. Canan to five years incarceration after having pled guilty to Attempted Second Degree Burglary and three felony counts of Receiving Stolen Property, for offenses in 1D and 2D. (Case F-173-03; PSAs 101, 104, 208, 209)

FACTS: Robert Bellamy was sentenced to five years incarceration by the Honorable Russell Canan, following his plea of guilty to four felony offenses – one count of Attempted Second Degree Burglary, and three counts of felony Receiving Stolen Property – for crimes committed in the First and Second Police Districts.

The government's evidence at the plea proceeding showed that on January 8, 2003, at approximately 7:00 a.m., an employee of the Lindy's Red Lion restaurant at 2040 I Street, NW (PSA 208) surprised a burglar standing inside the closed restaurant, holding a large plastic bag. The suspect fled. The employee realized that a variety of liquors had been stolen, along with two rectangular safes attached to each other by plywood. The employee called the police, and gave a description (a dark skinned black male, approximately 6 feet tall, 200 pounds wearing a big black fluffy coat, black shoes and black pants). At approximately 8:30 a.m. that same day, Second District Detective Sergeant Ron Wyatt and Detective John Paprcka, following a hunch related to separate information received a few days earlier, drove to 1601 North Carolina Avenue, NE, in 5D. They heard power tools being operated from within the building coming from Apartment 2. This apartment had a broken window. The detectives conversed with a person later identified as the defendant, Robert Bellamy through the window, and subsequently were let into the apartment. Once inside, they observed a large bag containing several bottles of liquor, an empty cash register drawer, two rectangular steel boxes that appeared to be safes with a sheet of plywood between them, and an electric circular power saw. They also observed several other opened safes outside, by the trash can. A search warrant was obtained, and several safes, power tools, bottles of liquor and other items were recovered.

In pleading guilty, defendant Bellamy admitted taking part in the Red Lion burglary, as well as to using power tools to cut open safes taken in other burglaries. Specifically, his admissions related to a burglary at the Lindy's Red Lion restaurant on January 8, 2003 located at 2040 I Street, NW (PSA 208) (the two rectangular safes attached by a piece of plywood, that were recovered in his apartment, had been taken in that burglary); and property taken in a burglary at the Popeyes Restaurant on December 22, 2003 located at 1101 F Street, NW (PSA 104) (six safes taken in that burglary were recovered from his apartment); in a burglary at the Mad Hatter restaurant, located at 1831 M Street, NW (PSA 209) (he received property valued at over $250 including various food items); and in a burglary at the Washington Café restaurant, located at 1025 Vermont Avenue, NW (PSA 101) (he received property valued at over $250 including liquor and money).

This case was broken open through the outstanding aggressive and intuitive police work of Second District Detective Sergeant Ron Wyatt (currently detailed to 7D) and Detective John Paprcka, in connecting and aggressively pursuing unrelated information received on a different day, to locate and identify defendant Bellamy and his North Carolina Avenue apartment, uncover his operation, obtain a search warrant, and recover incriminating evidence including stolen safes and the tools to cut them open. In addition, First District Detective Joseph Radvansky developed a witness in connection with another burglary, and a thorough followup investigation was also conducted, by Detectives Paprecka and Radvansky, involving the submission of fingerprint requests in numerous commercial burglaries, ultimately producing no matches. Assistant U.S. Attorney Wanda Dixon coordinated the investigation and obtained the guilty plea in this case.

Patrick Fanning sentenced by the Honorable Paul Friedman to a period of ten months incarceration and ordered to pay restitution for embezzling from customer bank accounts at a First Union Bank and defrauding a small business. (PSA 101)

FACTS: Patrick Fanning, age 28, of Waldorf, Maryland, was sentenced by the Honorable Paul Friedman in U.S. District Court to 10 months incarceration, to be followed by five years of supervised release, for his embezzlement from two separate employers. Judge Friedman also ordered Fanning to pay restitution in the amount of $34,997.

According to the government's evidence and a statement signed by the defendant, from May 1999 to June 2001, the defendant Patrick Fanning was employed as a financial specialist at First Union Bank, located at 740 15th Street, N.W. (PSA 101). Fanning's responsibilities at First Union included: opening checking accounts; processing loans for new and existing customers; trading mutual funds, and initiating annuity transactions. During April and May 2001, Fanning took approximately $26,833 from accounts belonging to First Union customers without the customers' knowledge or permission, by: closing a retirement account; preparing withdrawal tickets; and generating debit memos. In each case, the defendant kept the proceeds of the withdrawals for himself. In June 2001, in response to these customers' inquiries concerning the money withdrawn from their accounts, the defendant took approximately $22,292 from two other accounts belonging to First Union customers and used this money to repay the first two customers. The total of all of the unauthorized withdrawals is $49,125; First Union lost a net of approximately $26,833 (which does not include the amounts of money taken from customers' accounts and then deposited into other customers' accounts).

With respect to the wire fraud case, until May 2003, Fanning worked as a salesman at a small company which sold computer equipment. Fanning's pay was based partly on commissions. In the spring of 2003, Fanning created false invoices requesting $605,000 worth of computer equipment and services. Relying on these requests, the small business sent by facsimile the orders to a leasing company in Missouri, purchased computers and equipment, and hired additional employees. Through these false sales, Fanning requested commissions in the amount of $73,501.40. Just a week or so before presenting Fanning with the check, the owners called one of the businesses listed on the invoice to verify the request. The business denied all knowledge of the invoice. As a result of the fraud, the small company was forced to lay off employees and to retain $51,000 worth of computer equipment which they cannot use or sell.

In announcing the sentence, United States Attorney Roscoe Howard commended Special Agent Patrick J. Gallop, Jr. In addition, he praised legal assistant April Peeler and commended Assistant United States Attorney Virginia Cheatham.

Antonio Williams pleads guilty preindictment to Attempted Unauthorized Use of a Vehicle. He will be sentenced by Judge Wendell Gardner on December 11, 2003. (F-4933-03, PSA 108)

FACTS: Antonio Williams of the 300 block of 34th Place, N.E. pled guilty on October 23, 2003. The government's evidence showed that on August 15, 2003, at approximately 5:30 p.m., Sergeant Evans of the Metropolitan Police Department was patrolling in the 400 block of 7th Street, S.E, when he was approached by a witness, who informed him that the defendant, Antonio Williams, was driving a stolen car. The officer radioed for back-up and followed the car Mr. Williams was driving, a 1989 silver Toyota Camry with Maryland license plates. Meanwhile, Sgt. Evans confirmed through the dispatcher that this car had been reported stolen in Prince George's county, Maryland, the day before. When back-up officers arrived, they stopped the car at 6th Street and Pennsylvania Ave., SE. The car owner told police that she did not know the defendant and did not give him permission to drive her car.

At the time he was stopped, Mr. Williams told the police that someone by the name of William Sutton had let him use the car at 2:00 p.m. that day. Mr. Williams gave the police the address of this William Sutton. Subsequently, the police went to this address, but learned that nobody named William Sutton lives at that address. Additionally, the witness who first approached Sgt. Evans said that she had seen Mr. Williams with this car at 9:00 o'clock a.m. on August 15, 2003, well before the time he claimed he had obtained permission to use the car from this William Sutton. The defendant initially told the police his name was Michael Kirk, but his true name is Antonio Williams.
